VIII. COURSE ACTIVATES

- A. TESTING: The teacher will administer tests and quizzes throughout the course of study to determine the individual students development as well as the effectiveness of the teaching strategies/methodologies employed.
- B. ASSIGNMENTS: Students will have assignments on Monday through Friday. Time will be given to begin the assignment in class so students may receive assistance if needed.
- C. MAKE-UP WORK: (CCSD REG.5113.7): Teachers shall provide an opportunity for a student to make up missed work due to any absence. Students shall be held accountable for the work. After any absence, a secondary student is required to initiate contact with teacher to obtain appropriate make up work within three (3) school days. Specific make-up work must be completed and returned to the teacher within a reasonable length of time, to be determined by the teacher and communicated to the student/parent or legal guardian. Explanations and/or help are available at the teacher's scheduled availability times, NOT during the class period. The make up work must be returned to the teacher by the specified due date if it is to be acknowledged. Students shall be allowed a minimum of three (3) days to complete make up work.

- D. HOMEWORK POLICY: The purpose of homework is to reinforce the skills and concepts that are taught during class. Students can expect to have homework 1-2 nights per week in this class. Homework assignments will take an average of twenty minutes to complete. If a student consistently takes substantially longer than twenty minutes to complete his/her assignments, then his/her parents should contact the teacher.

Homework is expected to be turned in on the day it is due. Students should not turn in assignments late. If an assignment is turned in after its due date, the grade will be penalized 10% for every day it is late. Assignments will only be accepted up to five days following the due date, unless alternative arrangements are made with the teacher.

Students are expected to write the proper Bob Miller MS heading on their assignments. If a student does not put his/her name on an assignment, the paper will be placed in the "No Name Basket." The teacher may deduct up to 10% of the assignments point value when a student fails to put his/her name on the paper.

Students are expected to turn in something every time an assignment is due. If a student does not complete an assignment, then he/she must turn in a form indicating that he/she did not do the assignment. In addition, the student should indicate why the assignment was not completed. This form will serve as documentation that the assignment had not been completed as assigned.

- E. EXTRA CREDIT: Extra credit opportunities will be provided throughout the school year in the form of games, extra facts on culture videos, bonus questions, etc.

F. ACROSS THE CURRICULUM ACTIVATES:

- 1. Writing Process:--Students will put into practice writing techniques which they have developed in English. Students will be required to write short essays in French at the end of the trimester.
- 2. Technology:--Students will be required to complete a presentation using Power-Point during the quarter.
- 3. Learning/Reading Strategies:--Two column notes, vocabulary note cards, flash-cards, and other strategies will be used extensively.

4. Problem-solving Strategies:--Strategies will be employed by students as presented by the teacher.
 5. Notebook--Students will be required to keep a notebook for their classes. Organization of the notebook will be facilitated by the teacher. (i.e. sections for notes, sample problems, vocabulary strategies, and completed assignments.)
- G. Academic Dishonesty:--If Students are found guilty of academic dishonesty (cheating), the teacher shall collect the assignment, mark a zero for the work and notify the parent of the consequence. A second offense of cheating or continued academic dishonesty may result in a notice of required parent conference at which time future consequences will be discussed.

X. EVALUATION

A. Students grades will be earned through:

1. Semester Exams: The semester exam will constitute up to 20% of the grade.
2. Test/Quizzes: Tests/Quizzes will constitute 35% of the grade.
3. Assignments: Assignments will constitute 35% of the grade.
4. Participation: Participation, punctuality and regular attendance, initiative and dependability, cooperation and willingness to perform assigned tasks, accuracy and quality of work, and the ability to work with other students constitute a most integral and significant learning experiences of this course of study and will be 10% of the grade.
5. Extra Credit: The extra credit points (as mentioned above) could possible increase the student's grade 5-10%.
6. Make Up: Made up assignments, tests, and other educational tasks will provide the student 100% credit if made up within a reasonable amount of time following approved and unapproved absences. Absences due to truancy will or will not be accepted.
7. Late Work: All daily, short, and long-ranged assignments are due the following day or on the date identified by the teacher. If a student is absent on the day an assignment is due, the completed assignment is due the day the student returns to school. Late work is not accepted for a grade. Late homework assignments need to be completed for the review of information and acquisition of knowledge, but the student will receive a "0" for the assignment.

B. Letter grades represent the following:

C. Grade reports will be issued as follows:

1. Grade day reports will be given four times a year, midway through each nine-week reporting period.
2. Quarter grades will be given on a report card four times a year, at the end of each nine-week reporting period.
3. Semester grades will be given on a report card four times a year, at eighteen week intervals. Semester grades will be a combination of a semester exam grade and grades for the two quarters.

XI. BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS

Students are expected to follow all school and classroom procedures. My expectations in the classroom are as follows:

1. DO NOT TALK WHEN MR. EKKER IS TALKING. TALK ONLY WHEN GIVEN PERMISSION TO DO SO.
2. Be in your seat ready to work when the bell rings. Planner must be out or a tardy will be given.
3. Be courteous to others. Keep your hands and belongings to yourself and respect others' property.
4. Stay in your seat unless Mr. Ekker gives you permission to get up.
5. Pay attention to the lesson. Takes notes when appropriate.
6. Come to class prepared (pencil, pen, paper, notebook, assignments...)

If a problem occurs, progressive discipline procedures will be utilized in dealing with the infraction.

1. Teacher conference with student.
2. Parent contact.
3. Counselor Referral.
4. Dean's Referral.

Infractions of these expectations may also result in the lowering of a student's citizen ship grade.
